GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. Exhibitors must be actively enrolled in 4-H or FFA in Bandera County and be in 3rd through 12th grade to be eligible to participate in the stock show.
2. All exhibitors must be academically eligible to exhibit his or her project. Exhibitors academically ineligible "NO PASS NO PLAY" are ineligible to participate in any BCJLS event or competition. Any entry owned by an ineligible exhibitor is ineligible for competition.
3. Final entries and fees must be received by the BCJLS Treasurer (Laurie Haynes) no later than December 1, 2011 at 5:00 p.m. NO LATE ENTRIES WILL BE TAKEN IN AG MECHANICS AFTER THIS DATE. Entries received after this date will be charged a $50 per entry late fee, until December 15th. Entries will be accepted after December 15th and until close of weighing and sifting of that division. An additional $200 late fee (cash only) will be charged for each entry after December 15th. ENTRY FEES ARE NON REFUNDABLE.
4. Exhibitors must continuously own and personally feed and care for their animals(s) throughout the entire feeding period. The feeding period begins with the specie validation date through exhibition at all shows. Prior approval must be granted by the specie specific County Validation Committee in the event the animal will be outside the direct care of the exhibitor. The animal(s) may not be out of the exhibitors care for a period exceeding 48 hours. Exception may be made with approval from the specific County Validation Committee.
5. Decision as to which class the animal will show in is up to the Classifier. Weights at which classes are split will be decided by the Division Superintendent and Assistant.
6. Only castrated male animals, female swine, ewe lambs, and doe goats will be allowed to show in market classes. Male animals entered in market classes that show evidence of testicles will be sited. Castration and de-horning scar must be healed at show time.
7. This is a Premium Only Sale. All exhibitors will sell according to placing (i.e.: Grand Champion, Reserve Grand Champion, Breed/Division Champions, Reserve Breed/Division Champions, first place, second place, third place, etc.). Exhibitors must notify division superintendents by 3:00 p.m. on Friday of which place they wish to sell or not sell. A sales/auction list will be compiled by show officials. Grand Champion & Reserve Grand Champion entries will go through the auction for picture purposes only. The animals will not be sold. Grand Champion and Reserve Grand Champion Ag Mechanics projects will be eligible for the premium auction.
8. Exhibitors will be limited to the following entries: 3 market lambs; 3 market goats; 3 market steers; 3 market hogs; 3 pens of broilers; 3 turkey toms; 3 turkey hens; and 3 pens market rabbits. Breeding animals are limited to 3 per class. 3 entries allowed in Farm mechanics.
9. Decision of the judges will be final. Anyone making a protest must pay a $100 filing fee. Protest will be made to the Board of Directors. If the protest is won, money will be refunded. IF the protest is lost, money will go to the show fund. Protest will not be considered unless the $100 filing fee has been put up with the Division Superintendent.
10. Exhibitors will be allowed to sell ONE entry in Auction.
11. All show animals must be identified at the time of entry to show grounds.
12. Everyone is warned not to touch or tamper with the show animals without the owner's permission.

13. All exhibitors are expected to help the show officials and other exhibitors when needed.
14. All animals, except Grand Champions and Reserve Grand Champions, leaving the show must be released by the Division Superintendent.
15. All entries must be a credit to the show. All entries not a credit to the show may be sifted by the Board of Directors. Any animal that cannot be reasonably controlled will be sifted by the Board of Directors, and must be removed from the grounds when notified by the Division Superintendent.
16. Extra holder must eligible livestock exhibitors. Exception: Broilers.
17. No one will be allowed in the show barn or on the grounds after 12:00 a.m. midnight.
18. The show and the officials of the show will not be responsible for losses or injuries.
19. All questions that arise not covered by the rules or any questions in regard to the rules will be answered by the Board of Directors.
20. All changes made in the rules will go into effect the following year.
21. A commission of 5% will be charged on all animals/items sold through the auction or floored.

HORSE

SUPERINTENDENT: Carey Reed
ASST. SUPERINTENDENT: Kim Fulenwider

SHOWMANSHIP AT HALTER

1. The Showmanship class is judged on an exhibitor's ability to execute practical and basic halter class maneuvers from the ground. The class should always be judged with this in mind, giving credit to the exhibitor who can correctly perform each maneuver of the total pattern or run. In Showmanship at Halter, conformation of the horse is not judged.
2. All horses must be halter broken, manageable by the exhibitor, and in sound condition. Unsoundness may be penalized at the discretion of the judge.

WESTERN HORSEMANSHIP

1. Western Horsemanship recognizes the exhibitor's ability to ride a horse functionally and correctly using various aids to cause the horse to perform required basic maneuvers. The exhibitor will be judged, not the horse.

TRAIL

1. This class will be judged on the exhibitor's ability to skillfully maneuver the horse through a specified pattern of obstacles, with emphasis on manners, the horse's response to the rider and attitude.

ENGLISH EQUITATION

1. Horses will be shown in English tack and equipment. Exhibitors are required to wear a helmet.
2. Riders will be judged on their basic position in the saddle, which includes position of hands, seat, feet, and legs, as well as the ability to control and show the horse.
3. Scores on individual works will be based on the rider's skills and execution of the pattern, which is a specified pattern in a flat class.

SHOWMANSHIP

1. A junior exhibitor (13 yrs and under as of August 31, 2011) and senior exhibitor (14 yrs and over as of August 31, 2011) will be selected in the following categories:

Cattle -	Heifers and Market Steers
Poultry	Turkeys and Broilers
Sheep	Market and Breeding
Swine	Market and breeding
Goats	Angora, Market, and Breeding
